IV. Minimum Standards for Code

1. Preservation of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information

Insider shall maintain the confidentiality of all Unpublished Price Sensitive Information. He/she should not pass such information to any person including the other Insider, unless the other person needs the same for some legitimate business purposes/ performance of duties.

2. Need to Know

Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is to be handled on a "Need to Know" basis, i.e. such information should be disclosed only to those who need the information to discharge their duty.

3. Limited access to Unpublished Price Sensitive Information

Files containing Unpublished Price Sensitive Information or any such related confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password and physical files shall be proper locks etc. Files containing confidential information/Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, if not needed, should be deleted / destroyed after being used.

4. Chinese Wall

The Company shall adopt a Chinese wall procedures and processes to prevent the misuse of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information. The Chinese wall procedures and processes shall allow the Designated Persons to use Unpublished Price sensitive Information for the above mentioned purpose, but not restricted to discharge of contractual/statutory obligation and for such other purposes as may be decided by the Compliance Officer in consultation with Managing Director.

5. Trade in securities when in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information

No Insider shall trade in securities of the company whether listed or proposed to be listed when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information provided that the Insider may prove his innocence by giving valid reasons of the circumstances like

- a. the transaction is an off market transaction inter-se between the promoters who were in possession of the unpublished price sensitive information without breach of promises of regulation 3 of Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015, if such transaction is made for legitimate purpose and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision.
- b. In case of non – individual insiders (company, firm etc),
 - (i) the individuals who were in possession of such Unpublished Price Sensitive Information were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision –making individuals were not in possession of such Unpublished Price Sensitive Information when they took the decision of trade and
 - (ii) such appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place that these Regulations are not violated and no Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is communicated by the individuals who were in possession of the Unpublished Price Sensitive Information to the individuals taking trading decisions.
- c. Trading is done pursuant to the Trading Plan submitted to the company
- d. In cases of trades by Connected Person, the onus of establishing that they were not in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information shall be on such Connected Person
- e. In any other case the onus would be on SEBI.

V. Trading Plan

Designated Persons who may be perpetually in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information shall be entitled to formulate a Trading Plan ('TP') and the same shall be approved by the Compliance Officer after evaluation with regard to the regulations and shall be notified to the stock exchange(s). By virtue of the pre-planned trading plan, a Designated Person can plan for trades to be executed by him/ her in future. By doing so, the possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information when a trade under a trading plan is actually executed would not prohibit the execution of such trades that he had pre-decided even before the Unpublished Price Sensitive Information came into being. There are following stages for the implementation of the trading plan:

1. Essentials of Trading Plan

- a. Any trading (as per the trading plan) shall only be executed on expiry of six months from the date of public disclosure of the said plan.
- b. Trading, as per the Trading plan, to take place between 20th trading days prior to the last day of the financial period for which the results are required to be announced by the Company and 2 trading days after the disclosure of such financial results.
- c. Insider can give one trading plan at a time and the same should not be for less than 12 months, i.e. there cannot be any overlapping of trading plans.
- d. Any Trading Plan should set out either the value of trades or the number of securities to be traded, along with specific dates and time intervals.
- e. Trading on the basis of such a trading plan should not lead to market abuse. If any manipulative activity is detected, it would be open to initiate proceedings for alleged breach of SEBI (Prohibition of Fraudulent and Unfair Trade Practices Relating to the Securities market) regulations, 2003.

2. Approval of Trading Plan

- a. A Designated Person shall present the Trading Plan to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure, pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.
- b. The Compliance Officer shall review the Trading Plan.
- c. The compliance officer shall assess whether the Trading Plan made by the Designated Person is not in violation of the said regulations.
- d. A Designated Person shall provide the undertaking that he is not in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information or that he would ensure that any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information in his possession becomes generally available before he commences executing his trades.

3. Execution of Trading Plan

- a. The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Designated Person shall mandatorily have to implement the plan without any deviation.
- b. The implementation of Trading Plan shall be deferred if any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information in possession of the Designated Person at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available.
- c. Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

VI. Trading Window

- a. Designated persons and their immediate relatives are not allowed to trade in the shares of the Company during the period(s) when the Trading Window is closed. The trading window shall remain closed for a period of seven days prior to the happening of any of the following events in general:
 - Declaration of financial results (quarterly, half-yearly and annually)
 - Declaration of dividend (interim/ final)
 - Issue of securities by way of public / rights / bonus etc.
 - Any major expansion plans or execution of new projects
 - Amalgamation, mergers, acquisitions, takeovers and buy back of shares
 - Disposal of whole or substantially the whole of the Company.
 - Any changes in policies, plans or operations of the company

 - Cancellation of dividend/right/bonus etc.
- b. The Compliance Officer (in consultation with the Board of Directors of the Company) may close Trading Window for a longer period for the events mentioned above or on any such other matter as they deem fit after taking into account the sensitivity of the event / case.

- c. The trading window shall be re-opened only after the expiry of 48 hours after the unpublished information is made public.
- d. All Designated Employees of LML LIMITED and their dependent family members shall conduct all their dealings in the Securities of the Company only in a valid Trading Window and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the company's securities during the periods when Trading Window is closed, or during any other period as may be specified by the Company from time to time.
- e. The Compliance Officer shall take all reasonable steps to inform the Designated Persons one week in advance, about the date of closing and re-opening of the Trading Window. The trading in the Company's Securities would be permitted only on the expiry of forty eight hours after the information becomes publically available.
- f. In case of Employee Stock Option Plans (ESOPs), exercise of option may be allowed during the period when the Trading Window is closed. However, sale of shares allotted on exercise of ESOPs shall not be allowed when the Trading Window is closed.

VII. Pre-clearance of trades

All Designated persons of the Company who intend to deal, on their behalf and / or on behalf of their dependent family members, in the Securities of the Company and where the per transaction number of shares intended to be dealt exceeds 5000 shares, or more, same shall be subject to pre-clearance by the Compliance Officer as per the procedure as described hereunder. Any pre cleared trade not executed by the Designated Person within 7 trading days of its pre clearance would require fresh clearance for the trades to be executed.

An application shall be made in the prescribed format as annexed to the Code as Annexure I, to the Compliance Officer indicating the estimated transaction value and the number of Securities that the Designated Person, and/ or on behalf of his immediate relative, intends to deal in.

The Compliance officer may approve/ disapprove any of the pre- clearance requests and upon disapproval the Compliance Officer shall record the reasons for the same.

In case the Designated person and/ or his dependent family member has access to or receives any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information after the signing of the undertaking but before the execution of the transaction, he/she shall inform the Compliance Officer of the change in his position and that he/she would completely refrain from dealing in the securities of the company till the time such information becomes public.

In exceptional circumstances consent may not be given if the Compliance Officer is of the opinion that the proposed deal is on the possession of any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information. There shall be no obligation to give reason for any withholding for consent.

Every Designated Persons who has executed the transaction pursuant to approval of Compliance Officer for the same is required to intimate about execution of such transaction to the Compliance Officer within three days from the date of execution.
